

American Generals Serving in France under Pershing

Major General Omar Bundy, Third Division (Regular Army).

Major General Robert L. Bullard, First Division (Regular Army).

Major General George Bell, jr., Illinois National Guard Division.

Major General Joseph F. Dickman, Third Division (Regular Army).

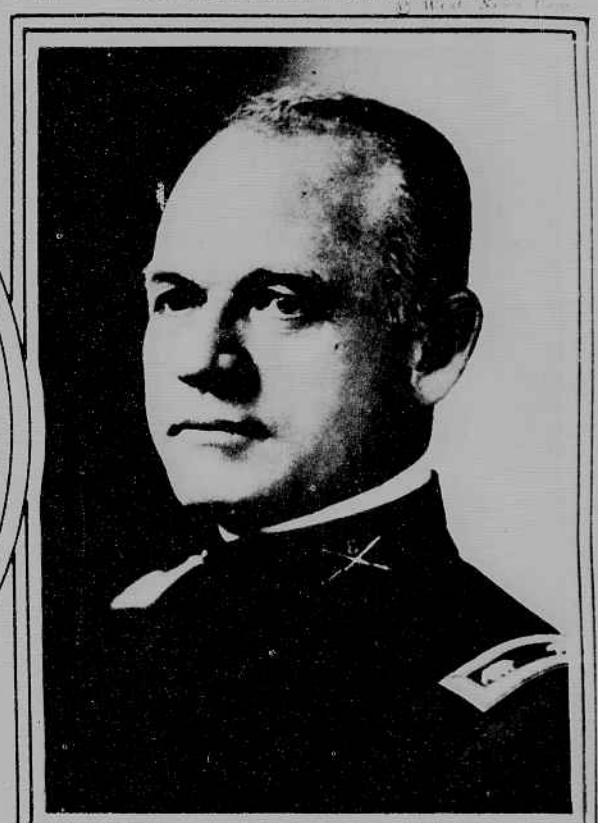

Major General Roy Hoffman, Ninety-third Division (all negro).

Major General Clarence R. Edwards, Twenty-sixth National Guard Division (troops from six New England States).

Major General Charles H. Muir, Twenty-eighth Division (Pennsylvania National Guard and Marines).

Major General Charles T. Menoher, Forty-second (Rainbow) Division.

Our Boys Are Getting to Feel Quite at Home "Over There"

It's always a hungry line when headed in this direction.

American dispatch dogs — from the Committee on Public Information's second film venture, "America's Answer."

The chair is a little bit old, but the shave is only two cents.

This is the marine version of leapfrog. Note the mass formation.

Sammies marching to the trenches. Husky, aren't they?